Alerter Services

Alerter: Communications & Media

An increased amount of communications legislation and the transparency of regulatory activity across markets requires specialist legal advice. This service issues tailored email alerts of summary information covering fixed and mobile telecommunications, radio and television (customised to topics and jurisdictions) and contains a fully searchable archive.

Alerter: Energy

Liberalisation of energy markets has already led to many new regulations and increased market activity. It is therefore vital to keep up-to-date with recent developments. Alerter: Energy sends you concise email digests of 'must know' legislative and regulatory developments within Europe and beyond. Alerts focus on legislative, regulatory and market changes in the increasingly open global energy sector. They cover gas, electricity, renewable energy, oil, nuclear, environmental and climatic trading and general environmental issues.

Alerter: Finance Industry

The complexity and speed of change of financial markets can cause information overload. This service keeps users up-to-date with tailored daily email alerts of summary information on banking, insurance and investment services (customised to topics and jurisdictions) and contains a fully searchable archive.

Cross Border Guides

Cross Border Acquisition Guide

Structuring and executing modern M&A transactions can be difficult and highly complex - especially in multi-jurisdictional deals or in public company acquisitions. Cross Border Acquisition Guide helps potential acquirers and their advisers by assessing complex M&A transactions; assists sellers and their advisers by identifying ways of maximising value and ensuring swift execution; and helps financiers and their advisers to structure their deal. This service provides an overview of the legal issues faced, giving a higher chance of success.

Cross Border Financing Guide

Structuring modern financing solutions can be difficult and highly complex. Accessing information critical to the proper structuring of a cross border transaction is essential to the success of a deal. This service provides an overview of the legal issues faced, giving a higher chance of success.
