Live and interactive Spring/Summer 2013 webinar series

Webinar topic	Date	Time
Managing risks to reputation Reputations take years to build but can be destroyed in seconds. This is particularly true in the current environment of globalisation, strong, joined-up regulators, 24 hour news and political hype. In this webinar, our experts will identify how companies can avoid, manage and mitigate reputational damage. Drawing on our extensive experience across sectors and geographies, the panel will focus on the pitfalls encountered in antitrust, tax, regulation, public relations, government affairs, M&A and corporate governance, and what distinguishes those companies that survive reputational challenges from those that do not. Speakers: Corporate partner Robert Crothers, Antitrust partner Jenine Hulsmann, Tax partner Nick Mace, Litigation and Regulatory Investigations partner Martin Saunders, chaired by Senior Partner Malcolm Sweeting.	21 May 2013	11:00 am London time

Webinar topic	Date	Time
Putting corporates' cash to work While many corporates are finding it difficult to find finance in present markets, a surprisingly large number are wrestling with how to manage substantial cash reserves. Our panel will explore how corporates with cash are putting it to work with customers and suppliers and in transactions traditionally undertaken by lenders. We will also consider new ground being broken by insurers in the deployment of their cash reserves and the activities of credit funds, and what cash rich corporates (and their customers, suppliers and counter-parties) can learn from them. Our experts will also discuss the regulatory implications, and new roles for banks intermediating corporate-to-corporate financing. Speakers: Finance partners Simon Gleeson and Huw Jenkins, Corporate partner Amy Mahon, Financial Institutions Group partner Narind Singh, chaired by Finance partner Robert Lee.	12 June 2013	11:00 am London time

Webinar topic	Date	Time
Emerging trends in M&A Our experts will discuss how M&A and investment techniques are evolving to address current market conditions in Europe and the challenges in growth markets in Asia and Africa. Emerging themes include the rise of joint venturing and private equity minority investments with limited availability of traditional sources of finance in growth markets, and the increasingly dynamic role in M&A played by lenders and secondary investors in the debt markets. The panel will explore the issues from the purchaser and investor’s perspective, across the spectrum of opportunities presented by corporates selling off non-core assets and seeking funds to develop new projects, to “loan-to-own” and lender-led “rescue” situations. The panel will focus on the different transaction structures available, drawing on experience from recent and current deals. Speakers: Corporate partners Neeraj Budhwani (Hong Kong and co-leader of the Clifford Chance India M&A Practice), Melissa Fogarty and Kem Ihenacho (co-leader of the Clifford Chance Africa M&A Practice), Restructuring partner David Steinberg, chaired by the Global Head of Corporate, Matthew Layton.	20 June 2013	11:00 am London time

European M&A in the current economic and political environment Global economic and political pressures continue to contribute to a challenging landscape for M&A, but this can also lead to unexpected opportunities. Nowhere is this more the case than in Europe. This webinar will focus on Europe, exploring ever-evolving opportunities in the region, as well as the challenges presented when accessing the European market. The webinar will be held in New York and broadcast in the first half of July. Please email your questions for the panel to nikki.moore@cliffordchance.com before 31 May and we will seek to address as many as possible. Speakers: Our panel will comprise a number of senior Corporate partners from across the Clifford Chance network.	July 2013	11:00 am London time
