COP26 PERSPECTIVES SERIES

EU'S CARBON BORDER ADJUSTMENT MECHANISM – INTERNATIONAL TRENDSETTER OR DOOMED TO FAIL?

Thursday 16 September, 1:00PM BST / 2:00PM CEST / 8:00AM EDT / 8:00PM HKT

In July 2021, the European Commission published a proposal for a new carbon border adjustment mechanism (CBAM) to address the issue of carbon leakage from products produced outside the European Union.

The panel will consider the design of CBAM, its ramifications for different sectors (in the EU and abroad), the likelihood of a challenge at the WTO and whether other jurisdictions will follow suit.
