AMSTERDAM ACADEMIC COUNCIL

Clifford Chance's Academic Council in Amsterdam brings together the firm's specialised lawyers, professors, PhD graduates and university lecturers in order to stimulate and support the firm's Thought Leadership culture.

Clifford Chance's Academic Council focuses on topics that are important to many of our clients, including:

- New forms of financing
- Economic and regulatory law

Clifford Chance collaborates with the Business and Law Research Centre of the Nijmegen Radboud University and participates in a number of its research projects. Academic Council members lecture at various educational institutes, including the Grotius Academy, Leiden University and Erasmus University Rotterdam. Clifford Chance has supported the Institute of Anglo-American Law for many years. The Academic Council initiates and promotes knowledge activities such as seminars and conferences and coordinates the publication of client briefings, consultation advice, books and other publications by our lawyers and consultants.
